VOL. 14, NUMBER 40 MONESSEN, PA., FRIDAY, JULY 30, 1915 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

Good Musical Program Despite Many Handicaps

With the rain falling in torrents striking the big Chautauqua tent with such force as to drown the soft tones of the violin and cello, and a brass band holding weekly practice in a nearby hall, crying babies with lusty lungs and older children who persisted in playing tag and knocking down seats in front of the platform and breaking several strings on the instruments The Alfred Hiles Bergen Co., one of the leading attractions of the Redpath-Brockway Chautauqua company attempted to give a program here last evening.

Despite all of the handicaps, however, the performers went on undaunted and the capacity audience that braved the weather, encored with vim realizing that they were having the pleasure of listening to musicians whose talent was far above the standard. Mr. Alfred Hiles Bergen the leading artist of the splendid company is one of America's leading Grand Opera Baritones and added several numbers to his part of the program to overcome the handicaps. The young Russian violinist can almost be ranked among the masters of the art while Mr. Charles Lurvey, the pianist is known as the world's greatest accompanist and delighted the audience with several difficult selections.

In the afternoon program following the musical prelude by the Alfred Hiles Bergen Co., Hon. John G. Stutesman, former minister to Bolivia spoke to a good sized audience on the subject of "International Peace." Whether the fallacies that in making success of life brains can do without brawn, genius take the place of hard work and reputation serve in the room of character, are sufficiently widespread to be called "popular" need not be discussed. Each formed a string on which the lecturer strung a glittering array of beads of historical incidents, anecdote and reminiscence tending to convert the assumed fallacy. It was a typical Chautauqua address, good for any time, place or audience, bound to entertain and amuse and remind if not instruct.

Today the banner program of the week will be presented with the Sand's Regimental band as the attraction. This organization having appeared here last season needs no introduction to local people. They will give a full band concert at both the afternoon and evening sessions. The evening sesion will be called at 7:45 prompt.

The program for tomorrow is as follows:

Morning—Boy Scouts

Children's Hour—Belgian Folk-Lore stories in costume.

Educational Lecture—"The High Cost of Living—Causes and Remedies.

Afternoon—Musical Prelude, The Haydn Quartette and Miss Helen M. Hancock.

Entertainment—"Trained Birds and Other Annimals," Pamahasika.

Evening—Musical Prelude by the Haydn Quartette and Miss Helen M. Hancock.

Lecture—"The Martyrdom of Belguim," Hon. Chas. F. Scott.

REFUSES TO MARRY WANTS $10,000

Demanding $10,000 as solace for a broken heart and broken promises to wed, Miss Katherine Mowen of this city, Thursday filed suit against Loius Bumer, also of this city in an action in assumpsit.

The suit was filed in the prothonatary's office and a capias was issued which Deputy Sheriff Copeman served on Mr. Bumer Thursday afternoon. Bumer was held under $500 bail for the August term of Common Pleas.

The plaintiff, Miss Mowen alleges that after Bumer had called on her a number of times in December 1913 he finally asked her to marry him and the wedding day was set for January 10, 1914. A short time before that date, however, Bumer appeared and declared the wedding postponed. Miss Mowen agreed.

On April 5, 1915, the plaintiff alleges Eumer again promised to marry her, after a year's waiting. This time the ceremony was set for the 19th of April. But again the groom was not on hand and the bridal veil was once more relegated to the background.

Now despairing at last of banking on futures, Miss Mowen brought suit against Bumer. She alleges that she is still ready and willing to marry him. But in case her offer is rejected she demands the $10,000 for her blasting hopes and trouble of preparation which she claims has injured her irreparably.

Miss Mowen is represented by Attorneys C. D. Miller, of Pittsburgh, and Bell and Bell, of Greensburg. The case will be heard at the August term.

Visitor's Day

Last evening the new Elk's home on Seventh street was taxed to its capacity, the occasion being Visitors Day, each member of the lodge being permitted to bring a friend to visit the home. The Chef had made ample preparations to care for the monster crowd and as fast as seats could be secured the guests enjoyed a lunch consisting of turtle soup, hard shelled crabs and many other delicacies of the season. A good orchestra furnished excellent music during the evening and the program included a number of vocal numbers.

Today at Olympic—"The Trust," with and produced by Lou Chaney.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris have returned to their home in Jeannette after visiting relatives here for several days.

—Mrs William Mitchell is entertaining for a week her mother and sister, Mrs. V. B. Moughler and daughter Lulu, of Garret, Ind.

Monday at the Olympic—the 4th chapter of "The Broken Coin." Every episode is getting better and our patrons eagerly await for Monday.

Bid On Piano

The Faultless W. F. Frederick piano used during the week at the Redpath-Brockway Chautauqua will be sold to the person making the highest bid. This piano is a high quality instrument and has never sold for less than $350.00. Each and every person attending the Chautauqua this week will hear the tone of this piano. Quality only, is value, it could not be better. Mail or leave a sealed bid with the W. F. Frederick Piano Co., corner Third street and Schoonmaker avenue. All bids must be in by August 2, 1915.

Candidates Busy In Old Rostraver

The political pot in Rostraver is beginning to boil, and from present indications from this time until the primaries in September, candidates for township offices will keep things pretty lively. In fact, it is quite evident that the fight will overshadow in interest the contest for the more important county offices.

Of chief interest is the contest for Supervisor. Each party will nominate one candidate for the place now occupied by A. N. Budd. Mr. Budd has announced that he will not be in the race, but his son, Joseph Budd, an active young Republican, and a man who has had considerable experience in road building is a full fledged candidate.

On the Democrat side of the fence, F. L. Kelly is an avowed candidate, with much warm support back of him. Mr. Kelly is a member of an old and prominent family in the township. For this office the fight in the fall gives promise of being exceedingly warm, notwithstanding the fact that the Republicans are greatly in the majority. Of the two hold-over supervisors, Walter Duvall is a Republican and Samuel Lynn a Democrat.

Fell In Garbage Can

Louis Bruener of Charleroi while working in this city Wednesday had a narrow escape from serious injury Wednesday afternoon when a new ladder on which he was working broke. He was about 32 feet from the ground when a rung on the ladder gave way and he was tumbled head first. Fortunately a garbage can was standing near the foot of the ladder and he fell into this and probably saved himself from serious injury. As it was he sustained an injury to his left hand and was otherwise cut and bruised, but will be able to return to work shortly.

Died Yesterday

H. G. Warick died yesterday afternoon at 1:30 at his home at the corner of Donner avenue and Oneida street following a lengthy illness. Funeral services will be held at the late home on Sunday afternoon in charge of Rev. Davies of the Methodist church, of which the deceased was a member. Interment will be made in the cemetery at Roscoe. He is survived by his wife.

Tuesday at the Olympic—One of Charlie Chaplin's fine comedies, and the best of all. "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," featuring the Broadway stars, Max Figman and Miss Solita Robertson in 6 reels.

DRUNKEN YOUTH ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Jules Goffin, age 21, who claimed "any place he hung his hat" as home was the lone prisoner to face Burgess Dunlap this morning. This being Jules first appearance in the local police court he was discharged. He has been working about the Eclipse livery for some time and accumulated enough filthy lucre to get a real good jag on. In fact he got so drunk that he became ashamed of himself and hied to the P. & L. E. tracks to commit suicide. Other employes followed him and remonstrated that he desist from the rash act but in vain. Jules was sure he would be better off in the other world and it was only when the police were called and he was placed in a cell that he saw the folly of his intentions. He was himself this morning and promised to follow the straight and narrow path in the future and get a steady job in a livery stable.

To Improve Roads

The Greensburg-West Newton and Belle Vernon-Washington road in this county is to repaired this summer. The sum of $8,00 appropriated for putting this highway in better condition was received Monday by C. E. Meyer, superintendent of the State roads in Westmoreland county.

Work of resurfacing the Greensburg-New Alexandria road by the state will also begin next week, the sum of $7,800 for repairing the highway being received.

Mr. Meyer and S. W. Jackson, assistant highway engineer, recently made a trip over the state roads of the county and the appropriation of money for the repairing of the Alexandria road of the West Newton road followed.

Becker Electrocuted

Former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, twice convicted of instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, gambler, was electrocuted this morning at 5:45, following the refusal of Governor Whitman to commute his sentence to life inprisonment.

—The many freinds of Mrs. J. B. Culler will be glad to learn that she has recovered sufficiently from a lenthy illness to be removed from the Presbyterian hospital in Pittsburgh to her home here.

Today at the Olympic—"The Eleventh Dimension," in 2 acts featuring Howard Crampton and Frances Nelson. 1t

Fear Raise In Rates Refuse Neighbors Water

Health Officer Clendenon made his rounds of the city yesterday and closed ten wells within the borough limits that were found by the State laboratories to contain typhoid fever germs. The wells were boarded up and warnings placed that the person that broke the seals would be dealt with according to law. They will remain closed until all the dangers have passed. Several of the wells will be filled up.

As a result of the general closing of the wells about town a number of the people found themselves without water this morning and complaints are being made to both the city and health authorities. They, however, are unable to offer any assistance as they are obeying the orders of the State in closing the wells.

A most aggravating situation has arisen with the closing of the wells as a number of people have found it impossible to secure water from their neighbors as they fear if they give out water the Tri-Cities Water Company will learn of their actions and raise the rates. One lady who appeared at the local police station this morning stated that she would be compelled to move as her source of water supply has been cut off with the closing of her well and when she made the rounds of her neighbors this morning they all refused to give her water, fearing the raise in rates. The city officials may take the matter up with the water company and ask them to allow a small concession as the wells are only closed temporarily and the least they could do would be to play the act of the Good Samaritan for a week or two.

Play This Afternoon

This afternoon at 4:30 the Sunnyside and the Shadyside baseball teams will meet in mortal combat at the Page grounds and when the dust has cleared away, the victors are bound to carry off honors that they can keep for a year at least as this is an annual event. The game generally brings together some of the town's former diamond stars and great rivalry exists on all occasions. Harry Lebowitz is manager of the Sunnyside with Guy R. Eddy as pilot of the Shadyside boys. George Myford is the official umpire. The proceeds of the game will be turned over to the Milk and Ice Fund for Babies.

Tomorrow, Saturday at the Olympic The Animated Weekly with the world's daily news and Meyers, famous cartoonist.

Today at the Olympic—Pathe Daily and weekly world news including true war scenes taken by permission of the French General Staff.

New Records

Manager Thomas Laforte of the American Talking Machine company, announces two new double disc records that will meet with the approval of the local public. One is No. 1780 with "Those Charley Chaplin Feet" and "If You Can't Get a Girl in the Summer Time." The other is No. 1783 with "Are You the O'Reilly" and "Norway." Both of these records sell for 65c. You are invited to hear them at the American Talking Machine Parlor at 249 Schoonmaker avenue. 38

Despite the fact that a new million dollar plant is being erected at Donora, officials have left them off the new road map which has just been issued and the Pennsylvania railroad failed to put them on the new schedule. Perhaps they already concede it as a suburb of Monessen.

NOTICE

Claims Back Wages

An action to recover the sum of $3,780.24, with interest from June, 1, 1915, and the costs of the suit, has been filed by Hannah Bamford against Alfred Bamford and Mark Bamford, executors of the will of Joseph Bamford, deceased. In her statement of claim she alleges that she was employed by Joseph Bamford on May 1, 1898, to take and look after his business and to perform such other work as might devolve upon her, and that she was to receive $9.50 per week. This amount was paid until October 1, 1898, from which time she worked until May 1, 1910 and received no pay. She claims the wages and interest for this period, amounting to $3,419.18, and for wages and interest from August 8, 1911, to May 1, 1915, amounting to $361.06.

Exciting Runoff

Pedestrians on Donner avenue were given a thrill early last evening when a horse and wagon belonging to the American Express company took fright and dashed up the street. The wagon was ladened with lamp globes from the MacBeth plant in Charleroi and as the wagon swayed from one side of the street to the other, the crowd held its breath expecting to see a general smashup. A driver of another express wagon finally caught the horse before any damage was accomplished.

The Broken Coin

A Story of Mystery and Adventure

By EMERSON HOUGH

From the Scenario by Grace Cunard

(Copyright, 1915, by Wright A. Patterson)

SYNOPSIS.

Kitty Gray, newspaper woman, finds in a curio shop half of a broken coin, the mutilated inscription on which arouses her curiosity and leads her at the order of her managing editor, to go to the principality of Gretzhoffen to piece out the story suggested by the inscription. She is followed, and on arrival in Gretzhoffen her adventures while chasing the secret of the broken coin begin

FOURTH INSTALLMENT

CHAPTER XV.

If Your Majesty Please.

In full view of the spectators, who now had left the dancing floor and gathered in groups at a respectful distance from royalty, Kitty received the envelope from the messenger—the same packet which she had herself sent to the palace that morning for delivery at midnight

She did this with a fine air of insouciance, for she felt quite sure that success now had met all her plans, nor did the outward appearance of the packet afford any reason to suspect otherwise.

Yet, even as she took the envelope in her hand, there came to her a sharp conviction that something was wrong It had a strange lightness—it did not seem quite the same as when she herself had sealed it that morning Hastily, she opened the envelope, her lips compressed. It was empty!

Yes, the mysterious coin was gone Entrusted to the safest messenger she could find; sent to the king himself, received by the king's trusted official; guarded, as was to be supposed, every moment of the time since it had left her hands—none the less, the coin had disappeared as though some specter hand had abstracted it.

The blank book of surprise which came to her face was something not to be mistaken. King Michael frowned "What is this, mademoiselle—are we made the subject of some sport? How now?"

Kitty stood regarding first one, then the next of the faces about her On the countenance of Count Frederick she read only chagrin and surprise equal to her own There was no trace of guilty knowledge there—she was sure of that. Then another hand had come into the game! Some other mind also was interested in the mysterious coin of Gretzhoffen.

"What then, mademoiselle"' demanded Michael, himself not yet so fully advised as others regarding the nature of this packet which had been intended for him. "What was it that you were so good as to intend sending us?"

Kitty dared not answer this direct question She concluded quickly that it would be far safer to add as little as possible to the number of those who knew the full story of the traveling coin.

"Your majesty," said she, turning upon him so dazzling a smile as would have made any man forget all else "It was nothing! It was but a small favor I would have sent your majesty, to show the acknowledgment of my own country, since your majesty has done such honor to me tonight Perhaps someone in my humble menage has been unfaithful—if so, it was but small loss after all. If your majesty will forget it and give me a few added days of grace, I will explain—I will try again, I hope with greater fortune."

Michael was ready enough to agree to anything which would bring back to his society this dazzling young creature who stood beside him.

"Very well, mademoiselle," said he, "as you like."

A certain relief was felt by all concerned, as now he turned and made a sign to the leader of the orchestra, who stood, baton poised.

"With us, excellenza?" The king offered his arm The king and the young American, of whose origin he knew, and apparently cared to know, nothing whatever, were the observed of all. Michael at least could dance, and as for Kitty, she was an American girl.

As they swept on in the evolutions of the dance, Kitty caught sight of the dark face of Count Sachio.

That she had earned this man's dislike, or at least, had deeply hurt his masculine vanity, Kitty was well enough aware

As for King Michael, he was extraordinarily sober; which, in his case, was equivalent to saying that he was not extraordinarily happy

Count Frederick evaded the thrones about the king. Unwillingly he turned away his eyes from the beautiful figure of the young American as she danced. He never had seen a woman who thrilled him thus. He himself did not dance This was no evening of pleasure for him. He had other plans

Count Frederick started toward the door before a second thought came to his mind If there should for any reason be miscarriage of his plans—if there should be need for yet greater delay before his final overt act was committed—then he ought to have a care to retain some footing in the king's good graces. Because, revolution or no revolution, the throne of Gretzhoffen was not worth having unless his owner had both halves of this missing coin. Frederick cared not to be a penniless king, and only the united coin could give any king of Gretzhoffen actual wealth and actual power

The murmurs of the people, vague, indefinite, had from time to time been audible at the open door of the grand entrance

"Why do we starve while they dance?"

They began to edge towards the palace steps, a dark, dense mass The soldiery were not eager to oppose them with steel The soldiers were themselves of the people Moreover, they had had small cause for loyalty to the king and court of Gretzhoffen They were ill paid and ill governed.

The people lacked leadership Count Frederick had hinged his own plans of action upon one event—the public disgrace of the king—and that event had not occurred.

He frowned as he stood looking out over the dense mass which filled the streets Even he began to feel, almost in spite of himself, some sort of a vague pity for these less fortunate ones

Still over the voice of the strings and reeds rose the low mutterings of the mob, strange to hear, impossible to describe.

King Michael heard this sound All heard it, this voice of the people, as yet undecided The king's face paled—terror smote home upon his soul. The courage of his usual alcoholic stimulant being tonight denied him, his weak nerves gave way

He saw Count Frederick, now returning to the salon from the great entrance door The latter saw the terror on his monarch's face, and recognized on the instant the opportunity for himself to strengthen his own position in the king's good graces.

WOMEN CAN HARDLY BELIEVE

How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eldon, Mo. — "I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine. It advertises itself."—Mrs. S. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it? Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

MONESSEN PA. OLYMPIC HOME OF THE PIPE ORGAN

FRIDAY we have pictures of the strongest and best companies of America, Imp's 2 reels, Victor's 1 reel, Nestor's 1 reel, comedy all under Universal company and Balboas great productions.

SATURDAY—Wonderful day. 1st. Bison's 2 reels, "The Toll of Sea Diving." 2nd. Powers, "The Stranger," 1 reel drama. 3rd. Joker, "Freaks" with Max Ashe and Gale Henry, every one knows what these two star comedians means, smashing the records everywhere. 4th. Animated Weekly with its daily and weekly news and the world's famous cartoonist Meyers, and one of Pathes great cartoon comedy. I, the manager of this theatre am wondering how this is possible, how can we handle such famous stars daily in Monessen, while in the large cities such as Pittsburg, Philadelphia, etc., only are handling either 4 reels daily or one subject of 5, 6, or 7 reels, then they are charging 15, 25 and 50 cents admission, with no better accommodations, than the small Monessen has.

But we must admit that partly we owe it to our good patrons when they become almost professors in the moving picture line and they know how to appreciate a good thing when they see it. I was astonished today, talking to our ticket seller with her fine ideals in every line, and upon my question, where did she get these ideas, the answer was, by attending the pictures daily. The people yet do not know what they are missing by not following closer the moving pictures, the Universal school in every line. Let us hope that you will do so in the future for a mutual benefit.
